Jazz bebop pdf Uploader avatar billsq Jazz Guitar- Bebop and Beyond by Doug Munro.. More Chromaticism and a bit of Blues In this example I am using a longer chromatic run on the B string.. If you want to check out how George Benson uses this I have that in a video here.. On this string we already have 3 strong C7 notes: 5,13 and b7 After a short bluesy phrase with those the lick is descending from b7 to 5 in halfsteps again reconnecting with the chord by playing a descending C major triad at the end.. I will go over how you can add some bebop flavour and chromatic phrases to your playing in this position.. This is also how I work and have worked with learning new material Keeping Bebop simple: Chord, Position, Licks The examples I am going to cover are all found around this chord, which is C7 in the 8th fret: which is closely related to this arpeggio.. Chromatic Passing note idea 1 Notice how the end of the phrase is no on the beat which is also typical for bop lines.. The other example is adding a chromatic note between b7 and the root which is also extremely common..
